Going through school, meeting new friends, renewing old acquaintances, facing different problems, tackling new frontiers, opening new doors, learning new ideas, is all a part, of growing up.

Don't walk in front of me for I may not follow,
 Don't walk behind me for I may not lead,
 Just walk beside me and be my friend.

1. Mr. Patzer gives a pep talk at a pep session. 2. Mr. Kerspilo has many things on his mind. 3. Mr. Yarger and Mr. McClellan are having a little chat. 4. Mr. Dauster and Miss Olson get caught during class at the water fountain.

FACULTY

Administration

1. Principal, Mr. Michael Harrington served RHS in many ways. Besides keeping our school together, he spoke at the annual honors banquet. 2. Mr. Vandenberg was our superintendent for the year. 3. Mr. McClellan served as assistant principal this year. As many of us would recognize, he found another victim for detention.

Secretaries

1. Mrs. Trotter always seemed to have a smile, no matter what the task might be. 2. Secretary to Mr. McClellan, Kathy Rudisiler was new to our school. 3. Check writer for RHS and one of the secretaries to the superintendent was Mrs. Hull. 4. Mrs. Grant was also a secretary to the superintendent.

1. Band director for the grade school, the junior high, and the high school bands is Mr. Clifford Nicks. Dedicated to his job, he has spent numerous extra hours preparing for such activities as halftime at football games and concerts. 2. Mrs. Goering, art director at RHS, not only teaches her classes but also makes time to design covers on programs for special events at our school. 3. Special Education teacher, Mrs. Quackenbush, can often be seen working very hard with her students at school and at other events as the Special Olympics and the annual run-a-thon. 4. A new addition to our teaching staff is Mr. Williams. Other than turning girls heads, he also coached football, basketball, and track.

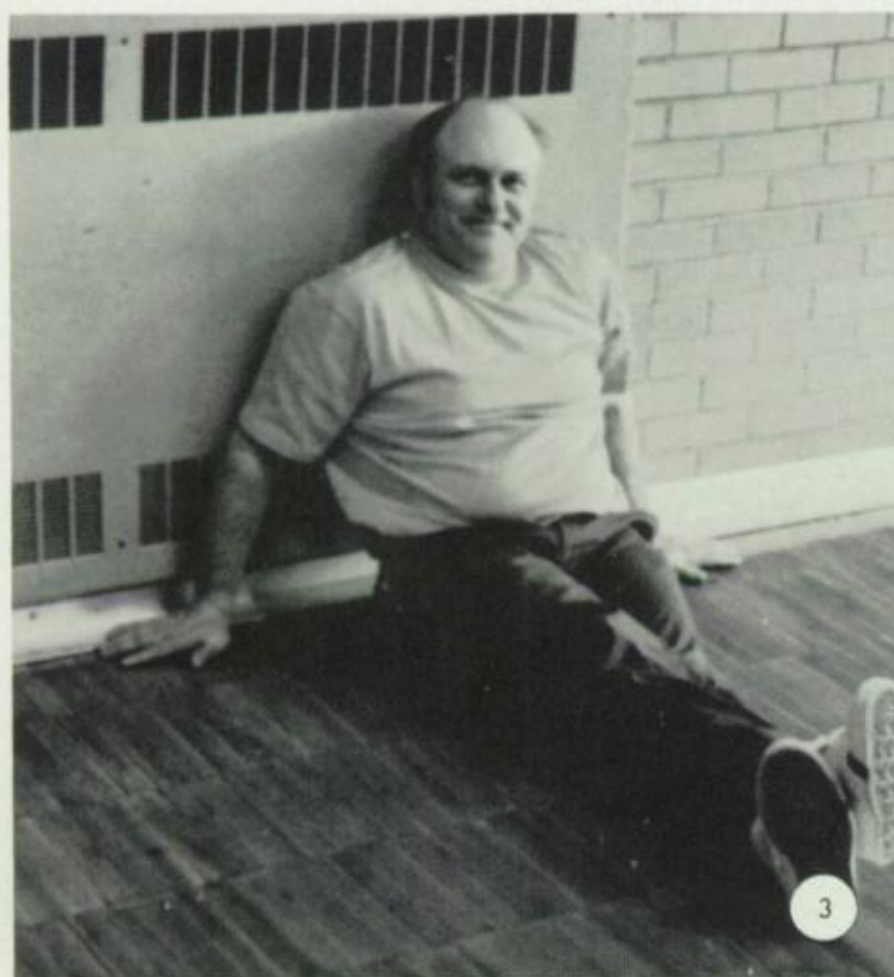

1. Agriculture teacher, Mr. Daglow has now been at RHS for two years. He enjoys his work very much, and has led many of his students to state honors. 2. Mr. Jedele, new varsity basketball coach from Dowagiac, taught U. S. History. 3. Mrs. Walters led a very active life this year at RHS as the yearbook and senior class advisors. She also taught business classes. 4. A former student of RHS, Mrs. Pridgeon now teaches math and science classes. When not with her husband Bill, she advises the Junior High Cheerleaders.

1. Formally Miss Esterline, Mrs. Thompson is the new physical education teacher. She also coached girls basketball, gymnastics, and track. 2. Busy as the junior class advisor, Mr. Dauster also teaches biology and psychology.

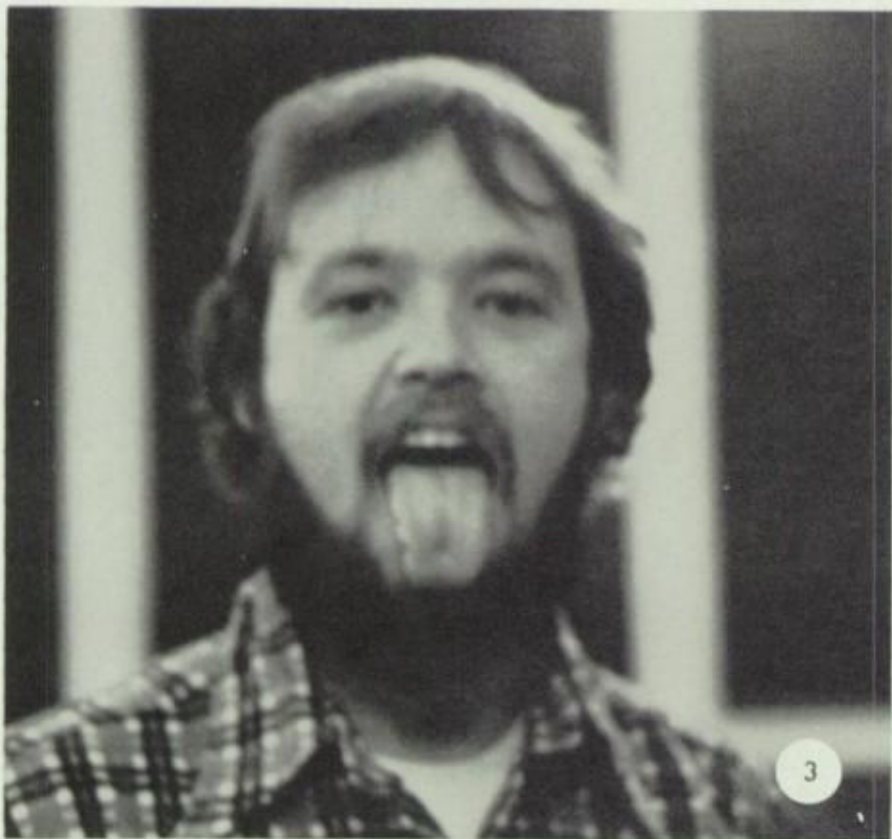

3. Physical education teacher, Mr. Spahr spends most of his summer teaching drivers' education. 4. Miss Berger is the choir teacher. She helped the choir prepare for many concerts. She was also the varsity and J.V. Cheerleading advisor.

1. To take on new goals in her life, Mrs. Lokar left her position at RHS as home-ec teacher. 2. One of the English teachers at RHS is Mrs. Ryan. Besides teaching many English classes, she advises the SAE. 3. Junior high science and math teacher is Mr. Sexton. He also took pictures for the yearbook, which was greatly appreciated. 4. New English teacher, Mrs. Wallen has helped many students while she has been here.

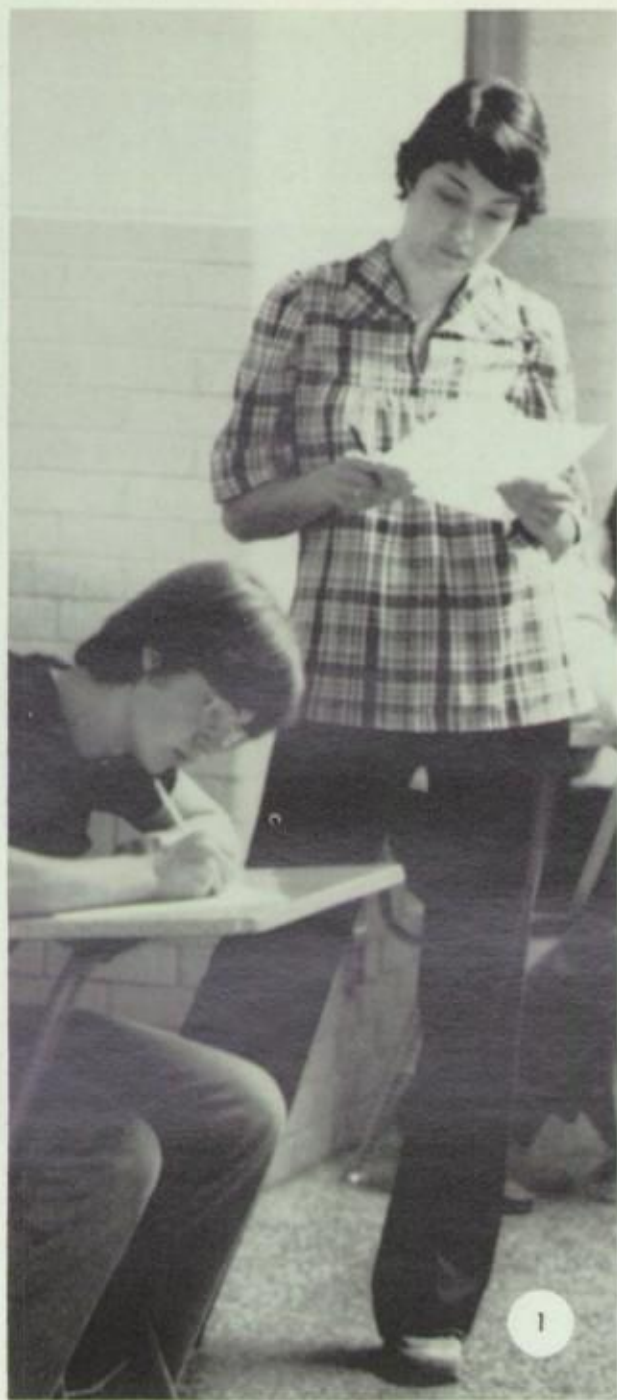

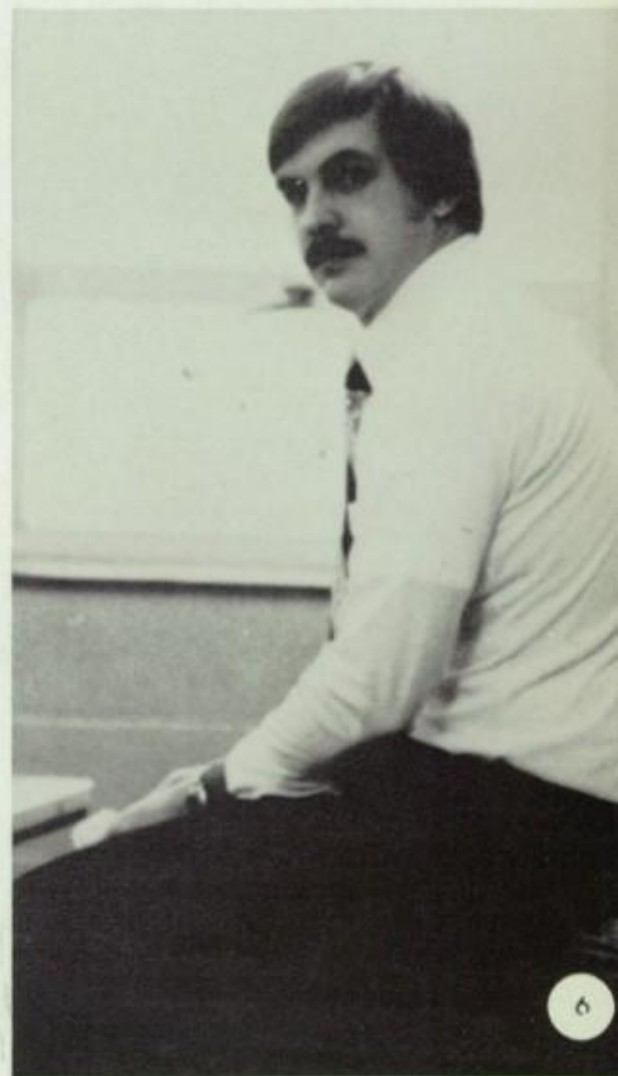

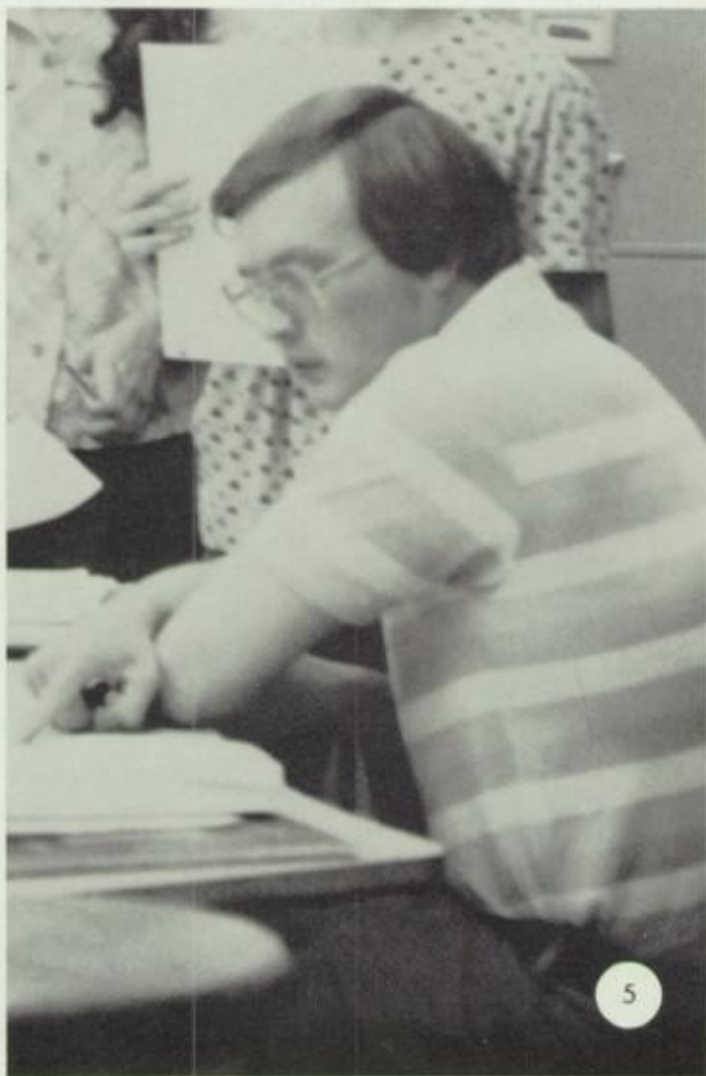

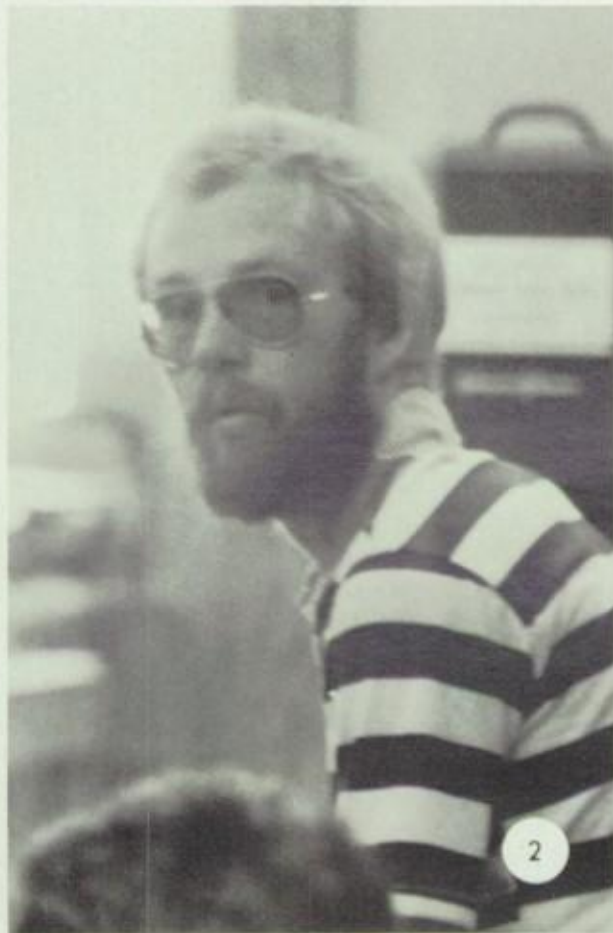

1. Mrs. Mewton, Home and Family Living teacher watched the pep session. 2. Mrs. Cornish spends a great deal of her time as one of the librarians. 3. Mr. Meyers, English teacher, enjoyed teaching the junior high. 4. Junior High math teacher, Mr. Parker, also enjoyed playing tennis. 5. Having been one of the longest teachers to stay at RHS, Mr. Brillhart tapped Sheri Lemke into the NHS. 6. Ms. Eddington, Ranger Report advisor and high school English teacher, enjoyed her second year at RHS.

1. Giving a French make-up test was Miss Olsen. 2. A newcomer to RHS was shop teacher, Mr. McAurtur. 3. Girls varsity basketball coach, Mr. Coolman taught both high school and junior high classes. 4. One of the busiest faculty members was Mr. Kerspilo, not only teaching government but also coaching and serving as athletic director. 5. Mr. Swabero taught junior high classes and advised the National Honor Society. 6. Social Studies teacher and coach, Mr. Patzer also spent much time with his wife and daughter.

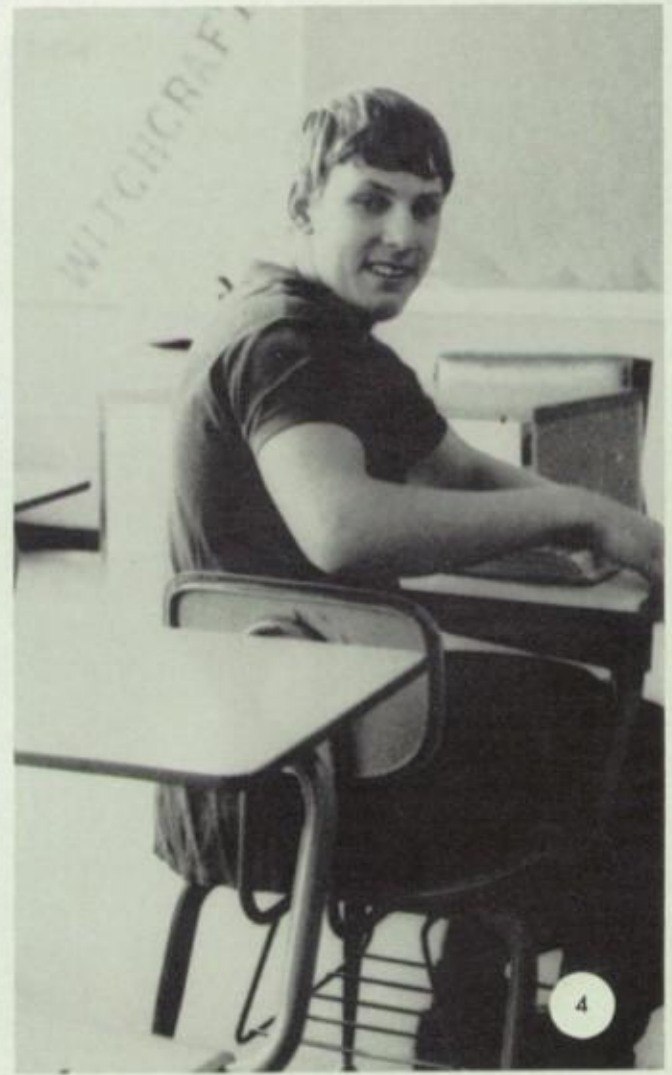

1. Mr. Williams spent a great part of his time coaching. 2. One of the many teachers to enjoy herself at the prom was Ms. Eddington. 3. Pep sessions were not only enjoyed by the student body, but also by the faculty. 4. Candles was one of the things created in Mrs. Newton's Crafts class. 5. Mr. McArthur shows his skills to the shop class.

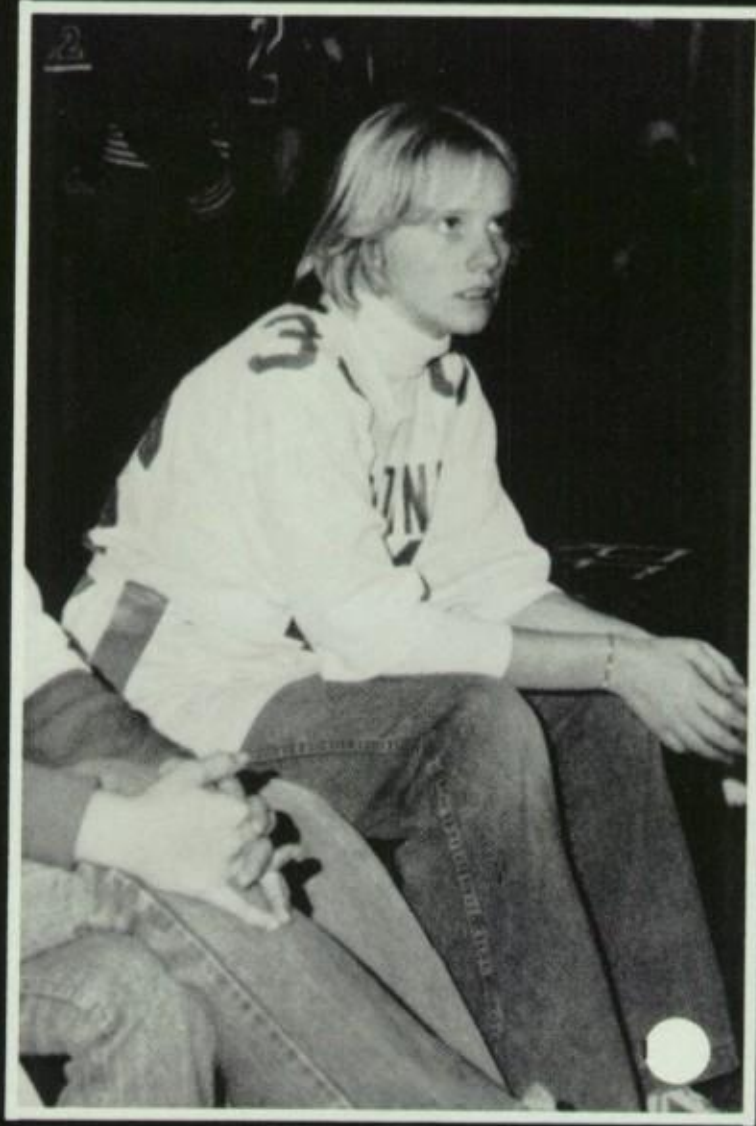

1. Juniors Angel Marvin and Candy Lane helped Mr. Parker every sixth hour. 2. Penny Sickles watches the activities in the gym. 3. Dave Miller, Christy Marsh, and Jayna Galloway showed off their sporty ability. 4. Ray Hollinsworth waits for Mr. Jedelev's class to begin. 5. Freshman, Joey Miller out of class again. 6. Lori Daglow, Chris Spotts, and Cindy Clemens are getting ready for the walk to Barre Field. 4. Melvin Manning says, "Peace." Dave Safran just smiles. 5. Mr. McClellan and Mr. Coolman seem to enjoy playing football against the cheerleaders.

A Tribute to Elvis

The theme for homecoming this yer was "A Tribute to Elvis." The three floats chose songs that Elvis had sung. The ninth grade float placed first. 1. Cathy Stiers represented the ninth grade on their float "Jailhouse Rock." 2. Renee Brueshaber was the tenth grade representative and their float was "Be My Teddy Bear." 3. Lori Blythe rode on the eleventh graders float "Blue Suede Shoes." 4. The senior representatives rode on a truck this year because the class decided against a float. The representatives were Sandy Price, Cindy Clemens, Marcy Meyer, and Sue VanHoosear. 5. Bridgett Blythe, queen of 1976.

Homecoming 1977

The excitement rose Friday until it reached a climax at halftime of the football game. 1. The new 1977 Homecoming Queen is Miss Marcy Meyer. This of course brought tears to many peoples' eyes, especially Marcy's. 2. Marcy is trying to wipe away her tears after the crowning. 3. Marcy is being escorted off the field with a smile on her face. 4. The queen and her court left to right are Lori Blythe — 11, Cathy Stiers — 9, Kelly Jenkins — 8, Sandy Price — 12, Sue VanHoosear — 12, Cindy Clemens — 12, Queen Marcy Meyer — 12, retiring queen Bridgett Blythe, Loni Miller — 7, and Renee Brueshaber — 10.

Band, Take The Field!

The marching band this year was really good and was really big. There were over a hundred members. Jeff VanHoosear was the drum major for the third year. The band performed at pre-game, half-time, and at several pep sessions. They did a dance and during one half-time even played a game of football. The band is something that everyone at RHS can be proud of.

The Pepper-Uppers Pep Band

The Pep Band this year played at all of the home basketball games and at all of the pep sessions. The band really helped keep the spirit going during the game by playing "Let's Go Red." The band was under the direction of Mr. Nicks.

Before we realized what was happening we were marching to the music "Pomp and Circumstance." Our graduation was the first to be held outside at Barre Field. There was sadness and gladness after graduation. We had to say "good bye" to our schoolmates. One of our dreams had become a reality.

Night of the Stars

Much time was spent in preparing for class night. Many things were changed. The class presented Mrs. Walters with a dozen roses and a clock. Many seniors were honored with awards. Swing Out was held on the front lawn. A rocket was almost launched but during the process it fell over and ran into the school. Each senior was "swung out" by a junior.

A Lot of Hassle for a Little Tassel

June 4, 1978 is a day that the seniors will never forget. It was the first graduation to be held at Barre Field. Susan VanHoosear and Mike Frasier gave addresses. When the class turned their tassels, pink balloons were released and filled the air behind the seniors. Even though the last time is sad, the end of one thing is the beginning of another thing.

DESTINY

The game of life is a reality
Through which we all must tread
And the path you choose to follow
Is developed in your head.

Success is yours for the asking
Or failure may take its place
It depends on your self-image
As to where you finish the race.

The pitfalls that might detain you
Are magnified in your mind
For it's not the actual occurrence but
Your reaction — that makes the grind.

So to accomplish your Life's objective
As every man must do
Develop your new self-image
And have the guts to follow it through.
— Dr. J. M. Croker

Wishing you a graduation filled with happiness

1. Jim Sanderson and Ken Holroyd come back to school after a noon hour uptown. 2. Bob Newberry is studying for a physics test. 3. Bill Blank is making a telephone call. 4. Tim Sprow is really happy for some reason. Maybe because he is graduating. 5. Lorinda Spence smiles for the camera.

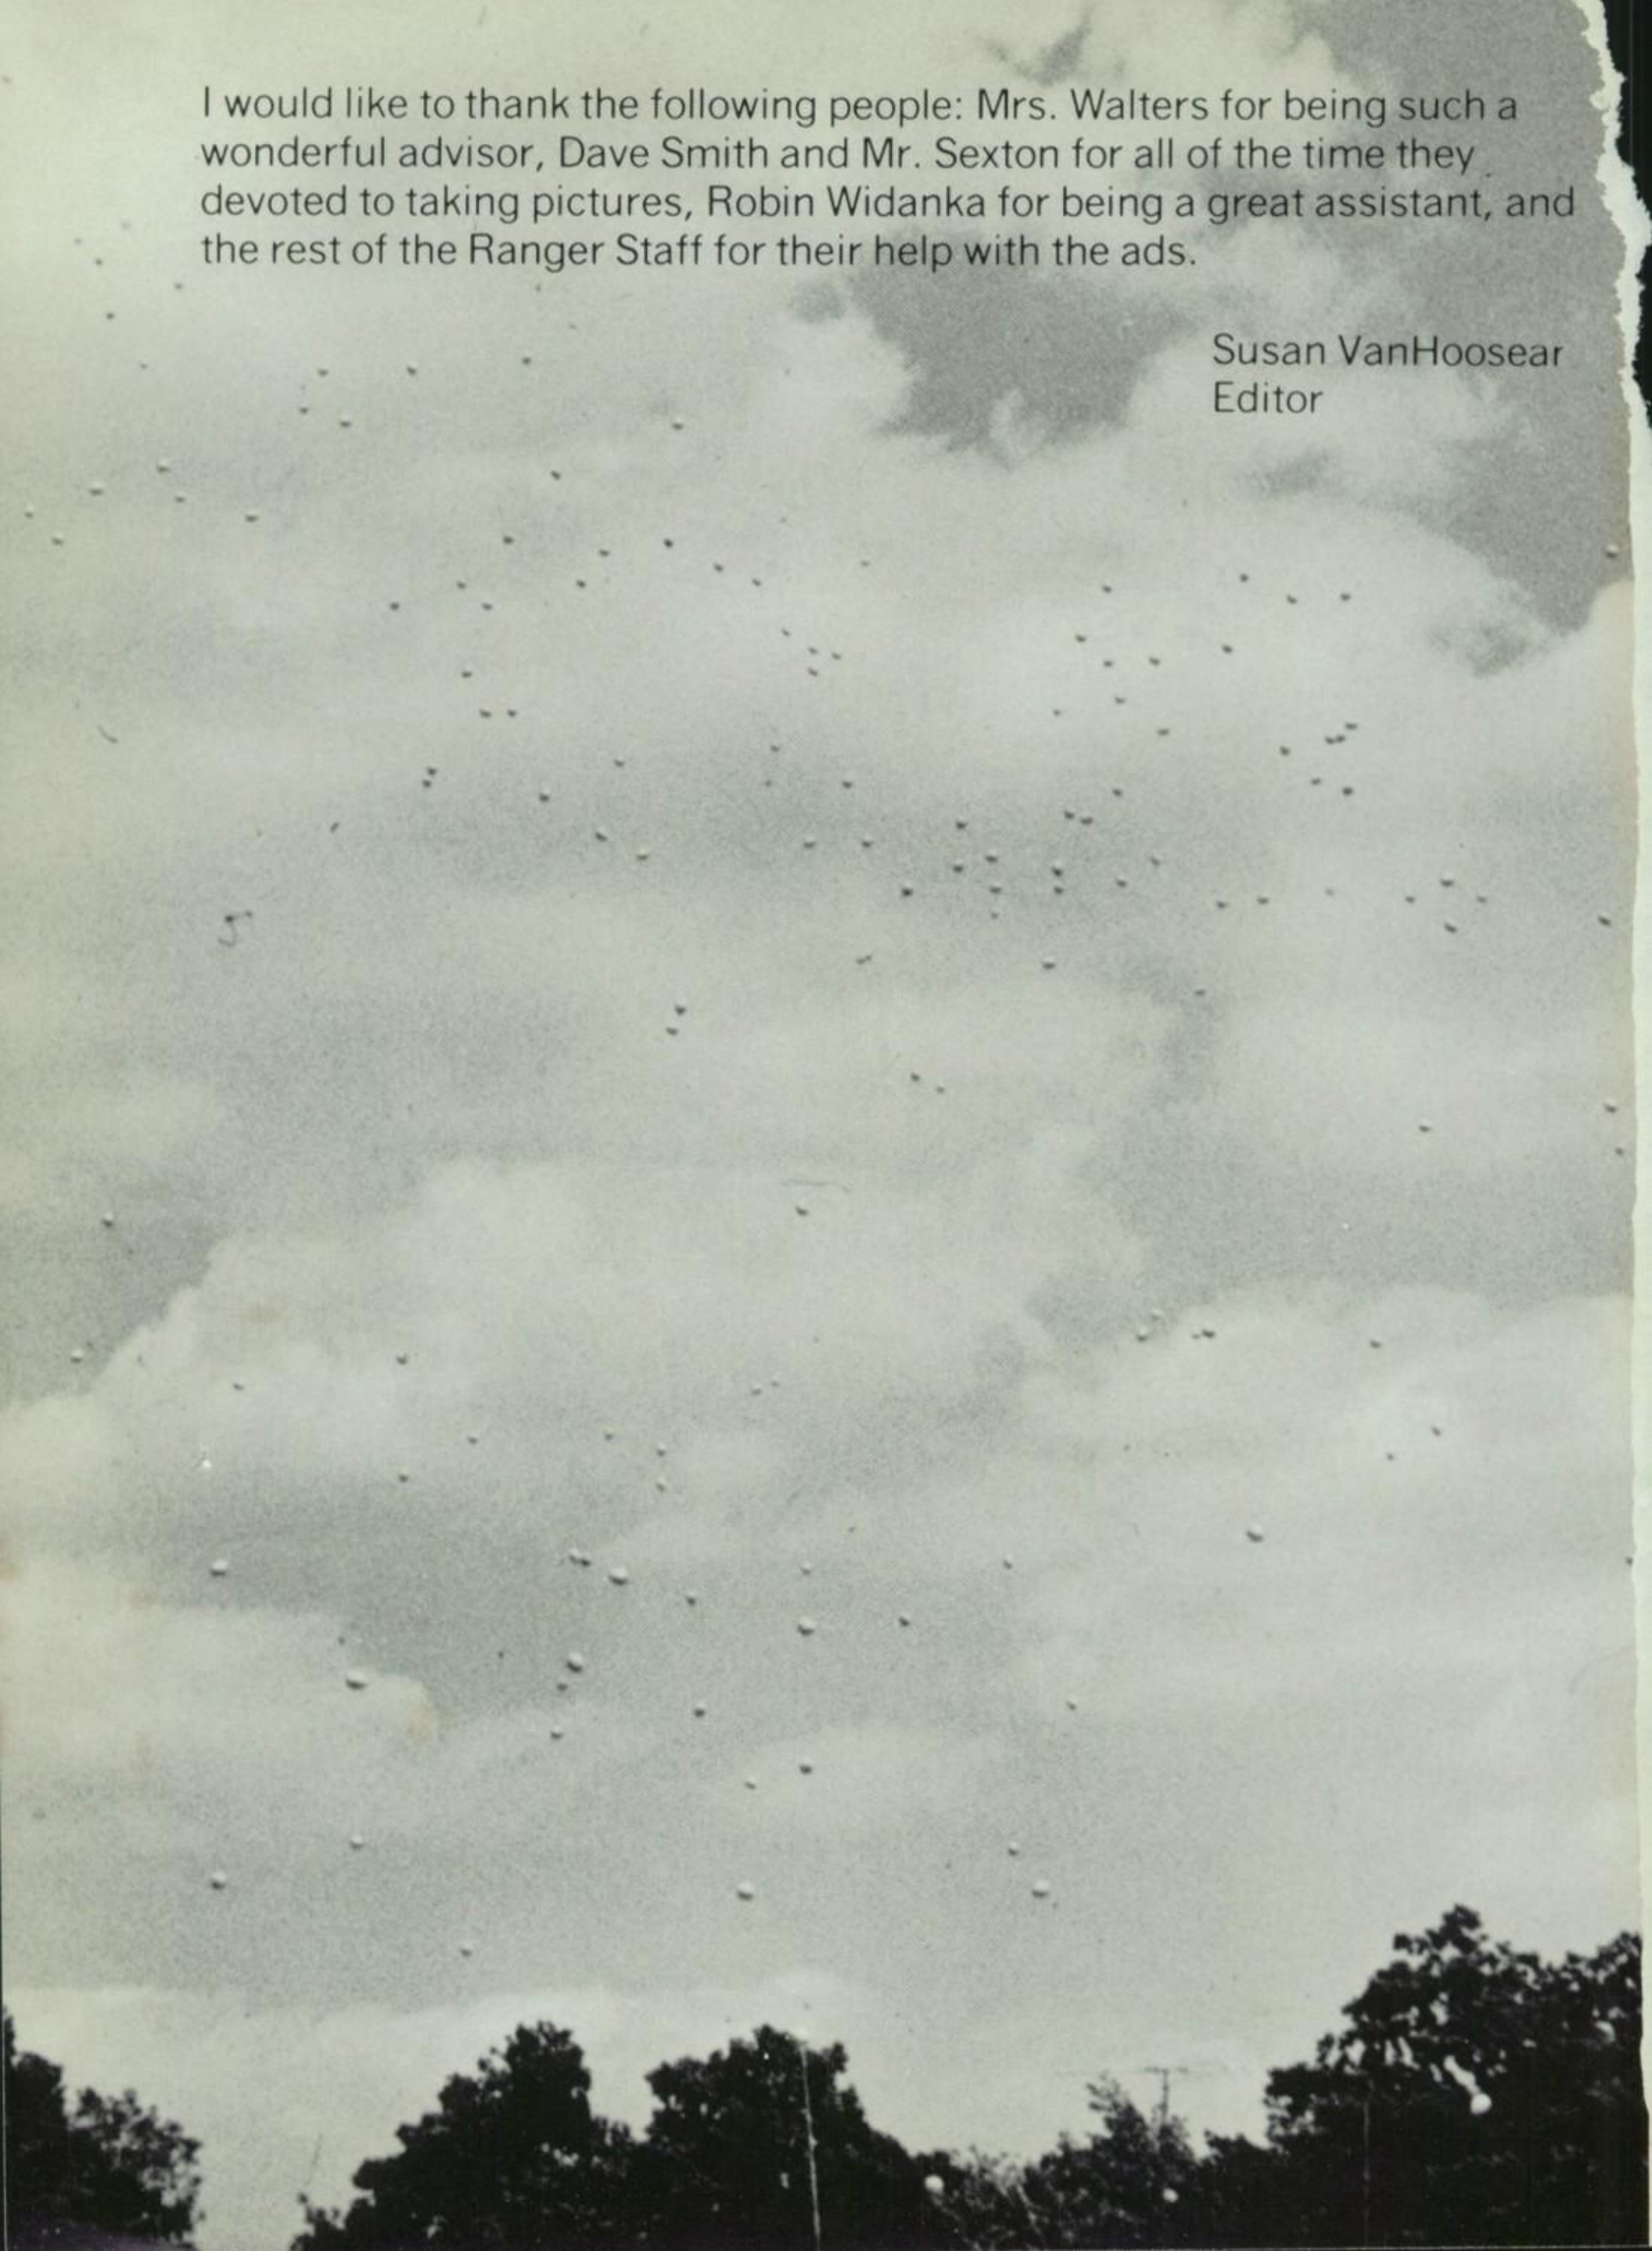

1. Jeff Southworth smiles for us. 2. This was the sign that everyone liked to write on. 3. Teresa Young and Lori Young are pretending to be majorettes. 4. Tammy Wertz seems happy enough.

I would like to thank the following people: Mrs. Walters for being such a wonderful advisor, Dave Smith and Mr. Sexton for all of the time they devoted to taking pictures, Robin Widanka for being a great assistant, and the rest of the Ranger Staff for their help with the ads.
